Nanoforum 2009

The fifth edition of nanoforum intends to be once again a first-rate meeting point for the spreading of the new opportunities offered by nanotechnologies, so encouraging the process of technological transfer from the academic world to the entrepreneurial one.
If Enterprises have a research department, they will find the right answers to their needs, by finding some of the greatest experts in the sector; instead, if enterprises do not have a research department, or they are not still ready for these strongly innovative aspects, they could be able to understand "what to do" and "with whom do", by coming contact with Italian and foreign researchers. The project site, constantly updated, is www.nanoforum.it/en.

EXHIBITION & POSTER

Enterprises, research centres, scientific parks, universities and Polytechnics present innovative solutions for the industrial applications of micro and nanotechnologies and have an area where to put up some posters

PARTNERING 1TO1

The Turin Chamber of Commerce, in collaboration with Unioncamere Piemonte and Enterprise Europe Network, organizes for Tuesday 11th June a technological partnering addressed to companies, research centres or universities that are interested in setting a research activity or technological cooperation in different sectors related to nanotechnologies.
If you want to include your technological profile in the 1to1 catalogue, please click to www.enterprise-europe-network.ec.europa.eu/public/bemt/home.cfm?EventID=1986
For further information, please visit our web site www.nanoforum.it section dedicated to PARTNERING

GUIDE-CATALOGUE

To all the attendees will be given a complimentary Guide-Catalogue, an over 50 page publication, useful all year round.
